Itinerary

B Breakfast | L Lunch | D Dinner

Friday 16th March (D)	TAURANGA – AUCKLAND This morning we depart Tauranga on a Coach and transfer to Auckland with a stop along the way for morning tea. You will be dropped off at the wharf in time to embark for your 8pm departure. Enjoy the sail away party!
Saturday 17th March (B, L, D)	BAY OF ISLANDS Today, is spent in the beautiful Bay of Islands, encompassing more than 140 subtropical islands next to the country's North Island. It's known for its undeveloped beaches, big-game fishing and Maori cultural artefacts. It's also home to the 19th-century whaling port of Russell, whose waterfront promenade is lined with remnants from its days as the country's first colonial capital.
Sunday 18th and Monday 19th March (B, L, D)	AT SEA Spend the next two days at sea whilst sailing from New Zealand to Fiji and enjoy everything the Celebrity Solstice has to offer. Enjoy cruise favourites including bingo, trivia, pool games and more. In the evenings, enjoy the world-class theatre shows, stylish bars and lounges.
Tuesday 20th March (B, L, D)	LAUTOKA Today, spend the day in Lautoka. It is in the west of the island of Viti Levu and is the capital of the Western Division of Fiji. It is a quiet, shady town of broad avenues, shady sidewalks and towering royal palms which run down the middle of Vitogo Parade, the main drag running from the harbor to the heart of town.
Wednesday 21st March (B, L, D)	SUVA On Arrival into Suva, the capital of Fiji, experience a city of broad avenues, lush parks and grand British colonial buildings, such as the Suva City Library. Suva's colourful, lively Municipal Market and Fiji Museum, set within the Victorian-era Thurston Gardens.
Thursday 22nd March (B, L, D)	AT SEA Whilst sailing from Fiji to Samoa, experience the ship's on board entertainment such as hot glass shows, culinary masterclasses, enrichment seminars or relax in the library. A new feature is "A taste of Film Experience" up on the open-air lawn club, where you can satisfy your love of movies and dazzle your taste buds all at once.

Friday 23rd March (B, L, D)	APIA, WESTERN SAMOA Experience Apia, the capital city of Samoa. The Robert Louis Stevenson Museum is housed in the writer's restored home. Nearby, at the top of Mount Vaea, is his grave. In the city centre, the country's natural history and cultural heritage are the focus of the Museum of Samoa. From Apia cross the date line and the following morning, arrive in Pago Pago.
Friday 23rd March (B, L, D)	PAGO PAGO Pago Pago is the capital of American Samoa, a chain of seven South Pacific isles 2600 miles south of Hawaii. Pago Pago is a mixture of colorful semi-urban communities, a small town, and a harbor surrounded by dramatic cliffs, which plunge almost straight into the sea. From Pago, Pago, cross the date line, arriving in Vava'u, Tonga the following morning.
Sunday 25th March (B, L, D)	VAVA'U, TONGA Vava'u is the island group of one large island and 40 smaller ones in Tonga. It is part of Vava'u District which includes several other individual islands.
Monday 6th March (B, L, D)	NUKU'ALOFA, TONGA ISLANDS Nuku'alofa is the capital, chief port and largest city of Tonga. The city is located on the coast of Tongatapu island. It is the commercial, transport and social centre of Tonga. Tourist attractions include; the Royal Palace, bustling markets and local shops.
Tuesday 27th and Wednesday 28th March (B, L, D)	AT SEA Spend the last two days on the ship whilst cruising back to Auckland. Check out the floating galleries and art classes, duty free shopping, silent discos and the casino or treat yourself at the Canyon Ranch Spa Club, available for an additional charge. Enjoy your last evening in one of the many complimentary restaurants or treat yourselves to a specialty restaurant such as the Tuscan Grille, for beautiful Italian dishes, available at an additional charge and can be pre booked before you set sail.
Friday 29th March (B)	AUCKLAND – TAURANGA Following an early arrival into Auckland, disembark and we will be there to greet you and transfer you back to Tauranga, with a morning tea stop along the way. We hope you enjoyed your cruise. Welcome home.
