Join a great group of likeminded people and visit 2016's best Golf Destination in the World - Hua Hin

While Hua Hin still remains a royal and high society favorite, this traditional Thai resort has developed many golf courses over recent years, combining the new attractions of a modern golf holiday destination with local charm. Unlike some of Thailand's other golf resorts, Hua Hin has avoided the hectic tourist development and the town maintains an old world character. It's a place to golf, relax, take a stroll, eat great seafood and enjoy the unique experience of golfing in Thailand.
